

Our Fall TOP 20 WINES

1

2019 Le Volte dell'Ornellaia

This Italian red is complex and fruity, with delicate floral and spicy notes. The tannic and smooth texture is striking on the palate, ending in a crisp and lively finish.

2

2018 Pierre Ponnelle Savigny-Lès-Beaune

Pierre Ponnelle was one of the great figures of 19th century Burgundy. His keen interest in the sciences led to him being credited with the development of most modern-day oenological techniques. 150 years later, his wines still reflect the purest Burgundy tradition.

3

Parini Prosecco Rosé

Meet our brand-new Prosecco Rosé made by the historic House of Lamberti in the Veneto region of Northern Italy. Parini's versatility and effervescent spirit of fun make it perfect for any gathering.

4

Pillar & Post Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon

Bright red fruits on the palate are complemented by balanced tannins and a refreshing acidity. This excellent weeknight wine pairs well with just about anything off the grill.

5

Bon Vivant Brut

This is our house bubbly that drinks like Champagne for half the price! Bon vivants have many friends and love to socialize, and this namesake wine doesn't disappoint. Enjoy the pleasure of good food, good friends, and a delicious glass of Bon Vivant. Cheers to the good life!

6

2016 Château Tessendey Red Bordeaux

This Château is a small, family-owned property in the Fronsac region of Bordeaux. The clay and limestone yield beautiful Merlot wines like this one. We love the ripe dark fruit flavors and rich, bold mouthfeel.

7

Founder's Ranch Napa Valley Chardonnay

You'll love the stone fruit flavors mingling with notes of toasted almonds on the creamy palate. The bright and refreshing finish is food-friendly and keeps you coming back for more.

8

2018 Réserve des Oliviers Châteauneuf du Pape

You'll love this blend from one of the oldest and most prestigious families in the Châteauneuf-du-Pape region. The unique soil in which it's grown helps to create this bold and powerful wine with loads of fruit on the palate.

9

Wohler Bridge Russian River Pinot Noir

Famed for its Pinot Noirs and Chardonnays, the Russian River Valley delivers another gem with this Wohler Bridge red. Faint aromas of brown spices are interwoven with deep red and black cherry flavors that are balanced by subtle oak for an elegant finish.

10

Pierre Ponnelle Mâcon-Villages

This Mâcon-Villages has beautifully balanced vivacity, fullness, and smoothness, with an aromatic complexity that makes it easy to match with food. We love it with fish, chicken, antipasto, salads, and hard cheeses.

11

Famiglie Montepulciano d'Abruzzo

From one of our best partners in Italy comes this delicious red! Made from organic grapes with aromas of blueberries, cherries, licorice, and sweet spices, it's medium-bodied on the palate with a pleasant acidity and finish.

12

Ronan by Clinet White Bordeaux

This white wine is made by the famous Château Clinet, and it's a delicious reflection of the style and savoir-faire of the famous Pomerol winery. It's fresh, fruit-forward, and delicately spiced, making it the perfect choice for a dinner party.

13

Alumni Willamette Valley Pinot Noir

Introduce yourself to Oregon's signature grape varietal with this exquisite Pinot Noir. A beautiful, complex range of aromas featuring black cherry, peppercorn, and hints of persimmon lead to a rich and generous mouthfeel with flavors of plum and spices.

14

Eve's Drop Chenin Blanc Viognier

Viognier is a white varietal from southern France, but more and more California wineries are producing examples of this versatile, food-friendly grape. Blended with Chenin Blanc here, it offers enticing notes of honey and stone fruit and a clean, crisp finish.

15

Country Ridge Cellars Napa Valley Chardonnay

You'll love the honeycrisp apples, lemon curd, and key lime notes on the nose which are set in a framework of toast, caramel, and vanilla. This medium-bodied wine has a crisp, juicy citrus finish that pairs nicely with the flavors of fall.

16

2019 Château Fontaubert

This red blend is a superb value at its price, from a property that's been family-owned for generations. Made primarily from Merlot, it's rich, complex, and balanced—a perfect pairing for pasta, pizza, and roasts.

17

Golden Gate Cellars Cabernet Sauvignon

This is a well-balanced Cabernet Sauvignon with dark fruit notes of blackberry and cherry, complemented by notes of cedar and a long, lingering finish. Enjoy it with grilled beef or pork on cool autumn nights.

18

Torraiolo Super Toscana

A delicious introduction to the Super Tuscan winemaking style, the Torraiolo has aromas of crushed berries, cherries, and oak on the nose. The palate is lush and full-bodied, and it finishes with round tannins and a long finish.

19

Grand Fossil Sauvignon Blanc

If you're a fan of Sauvignon Blanc, then you'll love this Loire Valley expression of it! Fruity, loaded with personality, and with a lovely minerality on the finish, this wine pairs perfectly with fish, shellfish, and white meats.

20

Il Casato Pinot Grigio Valdadige

This white from one of the top producers in Italy is perfect with appetizers, chicken, and shellfish. We tasted this gem when we met with the supplier and were blown away with the quality.

